

Where there's a Will...

...there's a way

to ensure your goodness lives on after you.

Little Sisters of the Poor able to care for the elderly in need because of your support through gifts and legacies.

THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

The family spirit that blesses our work had its foundations with Jeanne Jugan, a humble and remarkable woman whose compassion and charity provided a shelter for the elderly poor in France in 1839. Her inspiration led to the establishment of other Homes around the world, many in mission countries. The first Home in England was established in London in 1851.

Offerings, donations and legacies, complementing the modest pensions of the elderly, allow the Homes to function. There are 12 Homes in the UK and Ireland; of these, seven Homes are within the operations of the Congregation of the Little Sisters of the Poor - English Province (registered charity number 234434).

The registered address, and the Provincial House, is situated at: St Peter's Residence, 2A Meadow Road, South Lambeth, LONDON SW8 1QH

www.littlesistersofthepoor.co.uk

MAKING YOUR WILL

If you wish to remember the Little Sisters of the Poor in your Will may we suggest the following options?

PECUNIARY LEGACY

I bequeath £_____ to the Congregation of the Little Sisters of the Poor - English Province (registered charity number 234434), free of all taxes, and I declare the receipt of the Treasurer or other appropriate officer for the time being should be a good discharge for this bequest.

RESIDUARY LEGACY

Subject to the payment of my debts, funeral, testamentary and administration expenses and legacies contained in this my Will or any Codicil hereto, I give the residue of my estate to the Congregation of the Little Sisters of the Poor - English Province (registered charity number 234434) and I declare the receipt of the Treasurer or other appropriate officer for the time being should be a good discharge for this bequest.

When you make your Will, please remember the elderly in need and consider making a bequest to the Little Sisters of the Poor, whose work is made possible because of the generosity of our benefactors

Thank you and God bless you.

